

MONDI POZNAŃ SP. Z O.O.

Report on the implemented tax strategy for the 2021 tax year

Date of publication: 15 December 2022

I. Legal Basis

The information contained within this report is in accordance with the provisions of Article 27c of the Polish Corporate Income Tax Act ("CIT Act") and fulfils the requirement to publish the implemented tax strategy of Mondi Poznań sp. z o.o. ("Mondi Poznań" or "the Company") for the 2021 tax year.

II. Business background

The Company is part of the Mondi Group, a global leader in packaging and paper, contributing to a better world with innovative solutions that are sustainable by design.

Mondi Poznań is a plastic films converting plant which is equipped with state-of-the-art production lines providing the capability for solvent-based and solvent-free lamination as well as printing up to ten colours in rotogravure technology. In addition, the production facility offers the possibility to apply cold seal and unique codes, and to score films with laser device in order to allow easy opening of the packaging. The site is active on European markets, supplying a wide range of flexible packaging for various applications in different structures from monofilms for confectionery and detergents to alu-based high-barrier laminates for food and pet food.

The Company located in Dopiewo (near Poznań), Poland employed over 390 people as at 31 December 2021. Sales revenue in 2021 was in excess of PLN 480 million.

In line with the Mondi Group philosophy, Mondi Poznań is heavily oriented to sustainability. Emphasis is on environment, safety and effective interaction with local authorities, NGOs, and the local community. The Company works with customers, research institutes and other strategic partners to develop innovative, sustainable solutions.

Mondi Poznań in its business activities must comply with the Group's Business Integrity Policy which sets out how the Mondi Code of Business Ethics should be applied. This includes a duty to comply with all applicable laws and regulations. The policy includes 'facilitation of tax evasion' as a key corruption risk and states that the Group does not tolerate any form of tax evasion.

III. Information on the executed processes and procedures for managing the Company's Polish tax obligations

The Company aims to manage its tax affairs in accordance with national legislative provisions and within the guidelines set down by the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD). Mondi Poznań has implemented appropriate procedures to ensure correct calculation of its tax obligations as well as to collect and process relevant tax information. Appropriate division of responsibilities, controls and verification checks have been built into the procedures. The end to end processes are properly documented and tax relevant documents appropriately archived.

As part of its tax strategy, the Company seeks to reduce issues that may be queried by the Polish tax authorities. The Company conducts regular reviews of specific areas for focus with the assistance of external advisers and seeks professional advice for unusual, complex or one-off transactions. Mondi Poznań also secures its tax position by applying for individual tax rulings when required.

Mondi Poznań has an in-house accounting team, supported by a centralised Group tax department, who take day-to-day responsibility for management of the local tax affairs.

The Company's tax matters are dealt with by the in-house accounting team with appropriate knowledge and competencies, who regularly participate in trainings aimed at improving tax knowledge and to ensure that they remain up to date with changes in tax legislation, disclosure requirements and best practices.

The day-to-day co-ordination of the in-house accounting team is undertaken by the Chief Accountant, reporting directly to the Finance Director.

Arm's length principles are applied in the pricing of all intra-group transactions in accordance with national law and OECD guidelines.

The Company does not undertake transactions that are not related to its business activities or that are aimed at tax avoidance or evasion.

IV. Information regarding fulfilment of tax obligations

The Company actively ensures that its approach to its tax obligations is in line with the core values of the Company and the Group as a whole, as well as its overall business strategy.
